APPENDIX.

11 U. S. C. A. Sec. 94, Notices (Sec. 58 of the Act) reads as follows:

"Sec. 94. Notices (a) Creditors shall have at least ten days' notice by mail, to their respective addresses as they appear in the list of creditors of the bankrupt or as afterward filed with the papers in the case by the creditors, of (1) all examinations of the bankrupt, if the court so directs; (2) all hearings upon applications for the confirmation of arrangements and wage-earner plans; (3) all meetings of creditors; (4) all proposed sales of property: Provided, That the court may, upon cause shown, shorten such time or order an immediate sale without notice; (5) the filing of all accounts of the receiver and trustee, for which confirmation is asked, and the time when they will be examined and passed upon; (6) the proposed compromise of any controversy in which the amount claimed by either party in money or value exceeds $1,000; (7) the proposed dismissal of the proceedings, in cases where notice is required by subdivision g of section 95 of this title and (8) all applications by receivers, ancillary receivers, marshals, trustees, and attorneys for compensation from the estate for services rendered, specifying the amount and by whom made: Provided, That where a creditors' committee has been appointed pursuant to this title, the notice required by clauses (1), (4), and (6) of this subdivision shall be sent only to such committee and to the creditors who have filed with the court a demand that all notices under this subdivision be mailed to them.

"(b) The court shall give at least thirty days' notice by mail of the last day fixed by its order for the filing of objections to a bankrupt's discharge (1) to the creditors, in the manner prescribed in subdivision a of this section; (2) to the trustee and his attorney, at their respective addresses as filed by them with the court; and (3) to the United States attorney of the judicial district wherein the proceeding is pending. The court shall also give at least thirty days' notice by mail of the time and place of a hearing upon objections to a bankrupt's discharge (1) to the bankrupt, at his last known address as appears in his petition, schedules, list of creditors, or statement of affairs, or, if no address so appears, to his last-known address as furnished by the trustee or other party after inquiry; (2) to the bankrupt's attorney, if any, at his address as filed by him with the court; and (3) to the objecting parties and their attorneys, at their respective addresses as filed by them with the court.

"(c) All notices shall be given by the referee unless otherwise ordered by the judge. Any notice required by this title may be waived in writing by any person entitled thereto.

"(d) Notice to creditors of the first meeting shall be published at least once and may be published such number of additional times as the court may direct; the last publication shall be at least one week prior to the date fixed for the meeting. Other notices may be published as the court shall direct.

"(e) The clerk shall mail to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue a certified copy of every order of adjudication forthwith upon the entry thereof. The court shall, in every case, mail or cause to be mailed a copy of the notice of the first meeting of creditors to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and to the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the court is located. July 1, 1898, c. 541, Sec. 58, 30 Stat. 561; June 25, 1910, c. 412, Sec. 9 1/2, 36 Stat. 841; June 22, 1938, c. 575, Sec. 1, 52 Stat. 867."

"66-1124. Fees due 15th of each month; failure to pay on said date. On or before the 15th day of each month, all motor carriers shall pay to the commission the amount of the fees due from them for the preceding month. If payment is not made on or before said date there shall be added a sum equal to one-twelfth of ten percent per month of the amount of the original fee: Provided, That with respect to all fees and penalties remaining unpaid at the effective date of this act all penalty in excess of a sum equal to one-twelfth of ten percent per month of the amount of the original fee is hereby canceled. Said fees and penalties not paid on said date shall constitute a lien upon all the personal property of the delinquent carrier, and also upon the vehicles of all persons leased by it in its business, and thereupon said property and vehicles may be held under warrant issued by the commission and may be sold in accordance with the law applicable to personal property taxes. In addition thereto, that the delinquency shall be a ground for the issuance of a writ of attachment by any court of record against the carrier, and for the suspension or revocation by the commission of the certificate, permit or license; said suspension or revocation may be ordered after a hearing by the commission held after a notice of not less than ten days to all parties interested. The commission shall enforce collection of all fees and penalties provided in this act, and daily remit to the state treasurer the proceeds thereof. (G. S. 1935, Sec. 66-1, 124; L. 1941, ch. 301, Sec. 1; March 27.)"
